This was all in all a pretty good movie. The acting was good on the part of everyone, and it was very professionally made. But, once again, even though Mr. Trejo had a major role in this movie and was extremely good as the demented contractor bent on revenge, we simply didn't get to see him enough. The Contractor. Wesley Snipes is back in this explosive action-thriller about a deadly assassin who finds himself on the run when an attempt to kill a terrorist mastermind in London goes terribly wrong. Retired marksman James Dial (Snipes) lives a secluded life on his ranch in Montana. Haunted by his failure to exterminate one of the world's The Contractor.
