The men's downhill will feature prominently in NBC's Primetime Coverage Saturday evening. NBC will carry the full first hour of the competition starting at 10 p.m. ET, during which the medals winners are likely to be determined. Basically having watched the first episode I have no desire to watch the rest of the series. I paid six dollars for the entire series and I feel it was rip off. I will admit that I didn't particularly care for the movie so I'm not sure why I bought the series other than boredom.
