Synopiss:

Liza is a sophisticated woman who lives in a 'high class world'. Her husband Peter speaks Russian with a German accent, he owns a chocolate factory. They live in a cold world of minimalistic interiors, holding back their emotions. There are no children in their expensive countryside house but there are expensive greyhound dogs. However, Liza can't stay stone cold calm, as she has a secret from her past that burns her from inside, one that she would be happy to get rid of forever... And somewhere near there is a burnt room, and teenager Ulya has the keys.
